BEVERLY HILLS COOGER
NOT IN SO MANY WORDS

BY JOEL FAGLIANO / EDITED BY WILL SHORTZ

Joe Englaugh, 34, is the digital crossword editor of The New York Times and creator of the paper’s daily Mini. Born and raised in Philadelphia, he often makes references to the city’s art and puzzles, such as 6-Down here. This puzzle is ambitious, which means without preset answers that constrain the grid, it has a more open pattern of forward and backward movement — all check with us and at a fitting level of challenge. According to our records, it ties for the fewest number of answers (32) ever to appear in a Sunday Times crossword — 70.
