Kathalynn Turner Davis ditched beauty pageants for Hollywood, finding herself in the living rooms, nightclubs, sound stages, and lives of some of the era’s hottest celebs, including the King of Rock ‘n’ Roll. At first, after a successful debut in a movie starring the King of Rock ‘n’ Roll, she set out for New York City to study under the renowned Stella Adler. That chapter—which included a marriage, babies, divorce, and a foray into the world of self-actualization continued as she obtained a master’s degree in social work, which led her down a path of service, requiring her passion for spiritual growth. The quest for answers to life’s eternal questions took her to India and Israel, where she found herself face to face with the swami within.

And discovered that she was not just another pretty face.
